Name: -6.00

Medium: Collage combined with digital manipulation

Dimensions: 46.8 x 33.1 in

Artists Statement: This emotional, interconnected and long journey, is ongoing. I aim within my final pieces to represent how a journey of self-acceptance within the present, has become the key to a moment of peace from one's mind.

Audience: The initial audience for this piece is aimed to be gallery viewers. Inspired by places like the Ikon and Tate Modern. The work could possibly even be developed to become tapestry's, inspiration for clothes and possibly projections for music videos
