Puppets of Numbers

The Puppets of Numbers project is about how we are slowly becoming puppets without the ability to think or think for ourselves, driven by a quantitative society, living our lives bound by numbers, working every day for all kinds of changes in numbers, like our shadows.

Still, we can no longer tell which is the real us, and we are slowly getting used to being puppets of numbers, at their mercy, controlled by them, and no longer resisting.
